CONGRESSIONAL

Conclusion Yesterday's Proceedings. SENATE .- After our report closed --

The bill to provide for the redemption and reissue of United States notes and for free banking was considered, the question being on the motion of Mr. Merrimon to strike out the whole bill, with the exception of the first and second sections, as an ended. The amendment of Mr. Merrimon being in the nature of a substitute for the entire bill,

Mr. Scott moved to amend by adding the fifth section, which, after some discussion, was accepted by Mr. Merrimon.

A number of amendments were rejected, and the question recurred on Mr. Merrimon's substitute for the whole bill, which was agreed to by a vote of 29 to 24.

The bill baving been considered in Committee of the Whole was reported to the Senate for concurrence in the amendments. The amendments made in Committee of the Whole were then concurred in.

Mr. Schurz offered an amendment burlesquing the action of the majority, which was received with much merriment. The question then being on the passage of the

Mr. Conkling, in a brief but very effective and eloquent manner, pointed out the evil con requences of the course upon which the Senate had now entered. Mr. Stewart said he regarded the vote now about to be taken as the saddest vote which he had ever known in the Senate. Mr. Authory said he would do no more than enter his solemn protest against the act which the Senate was now about to consummate. It first time when the country was in a state of profound peace, in a time of prosperity, that the government was to commence the issue of an irredeemable parer currency. Mr. Thurman said this meant that men of his age were never to live to see the day when specie day for the country.

Mr. Davis would not vote for anything that could be construed to authorize any increase of the public debt. Mr. Sargent said this bill was trampling upon all the colemn pledges of the past. Still he had hope that there was another department of the Government (the Executive) where this wild action would be checked.

American citizen at the spectacle now prosented, and he believed that the men who were now congratulating themselves on their victors would live to see the day when they would curse it. The bill was then passed-ayes 29, noes 24. The vote was the same as on the adoption of Mr. Merrimon's substitute.

The Senate then, at 6:25 p. m., adjourned.

Mr. Schurz said he felt humiliated as an

HOUSE .- After our report closed -The bill extending the time for the completion of the Wisconsin Central railroad in Wisconsin, was passed. Mr. Sener (Va.) introduced a bill to relieva Gen. Fitzhugh Lee of his political disabilities. Passed. On motion of Mr. Wheeler, (N. Y.) it was than the amount of appropriation. Mr. Crossland (Ky.), from Committee on Elections, reported a resolution in the case of Burns vs. Young, from the 10th district of Kentucky, declaring that Mr. Young, the sitting member, was duly elected and entitled to his seat. He gave notice that he would call up the report at an early day. Mr. McCormick (Arizona) offered a resolution which was referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs, directing the Secretary of the Interior to furnish a l'st of all claims for losses agreed that when the deficiency appropriation bill shall be under consideration it shall be in order to offer an amendments providing for a penalty upon any officer who shall expend more by depredations from Indians for the past ten years, together with all the particulars in the Mr. Hazleton (Wis.) offered a resolution directing the Committee on the Judiciary to report a bill to amend the acts of incorporation in relation to the running of street cars in Washington so as to declare what shall be a legal day's work, to reduce the number of working hours below sixteen and to fix the rate of wages, &c. Mr. Platt (Va.) objected. That subject was no business of this House. Mr. Speer (Pa.) offered a preamble and resolution, reciting that the bulk of foreign emi-gration to this country came through the port of New York; that it was greatly burdened by a capitation tax; that the tax was regarded with suspicion, was oppressive, and tended to check emigration; that, if imposed at all, it should be imposed by Congress, and not by one state alone; that the board of emigration commissioners had asked for an increase of said tax; and, therefore, directing the Committee on Commerce to inquire in what manner the state disbursed the amount of tax so collected, and that the committee be empowered to send for persons and papers. Referred to the Committee on Commerce. On motion of Mr. Butler (Mass.), the bill to prevent maladministration in the civil service of the United States was made the special order for Tuesday of next week. Mr. O'Brien (Md.) introduced a bill authorizing nations and tribes of Indians, in their corporate capacity and as individuals, to sue and be sued in the courts of the United States. Referred. The House then adjourned.

THE FIRST OF APRIL IN BOSTON .- A SUCcessful April hoax or a series of hoaxes was perpetrated by the attaches of she Howard Athedressed as a woman and placed in a seat. The pulling of a string caused it to fall to the floor, when several of the audience were deceived into giving the supposititious fainter their assistance. The device worked so well in the theater that it was carried into the streets, and several patrolmen became victims of the hoax, which was oft-repeated during the night. One was induced to awaken the woman asleep in a doorway; another was called to the woman dead; and so on, until the effigy was thrown from one of the wharves, and a sympathizing sailor recovered the supposed body.—Transcript, Ap'l L.

the dish is square, and we'll be married the next state fair. The bell shall ring, the drum shall play, and we'll go dancing all the way. Answer seon. Mary."

THE INSPIRING SUNSHINE of the season has touched the heart of an Indianapolis girl, who concludes a love letter thus: "The ring is round,
